

Episode 5: A MASTERPIECE

1. Foley's room.

Foley: ...and if the journalists have run off with the list, we'll have the army here in less than three hours. Burn everything and get out of here. Don't worry about me. Run.

2. Australia

Ben: So Tom... I bet you found the piece of paper in the ventilator, didn't you?

Tom: Fortunately, I know how your sick mind works. But I still don't understand why they kidnapped you.

Ben: I discovered that Judy didn't commit suicide but Beautiful Babes had her killed. She found out they were killing off a generation of their child prodigies because they were becoming dangerous. Her child was on the list. She got scared and wanted to reveal the truth. I suppose that's the list I found in her apartment. Coming back from Judy's house, someone must have followed me. I was at my house for twenty minutes... the lights went out... I just had time to hide that paper you found. Frankly, I didn't believe anyone would be able to track me down.

Gina: Ah, poor Judy. And all those kids.

Tom: Shit.

Gina: What?

Tom: I think we've run out of petrol. A bullet's hit the tank. (Telephones Max) Yes, Max.

Max: Is everything going ok?

Tom: Yes. We've just rescued Ben. He's badly hurt, but he did find a list incriminating Beautiful Babes.

Max: And did you get it?

Tom: Not yet. But you'll have it in your hands in a few minutes. At Judy Faringdon's house. Ben found it, he saw some men following him, so he left it where Judy hid it: in the Metal Church tape. The Master Peace Album.

Max: Metal Church?

Tom: Who would think to look in a Canadian metal band's tape?

3. Foley's room.

Children: What did you do for us, Foley? The pleasures of a child, we never knew what they were. You called us your children – have you really been a good father for us? You had no right to do what you did. Did you think you were helping us? Did we deserve this life? We're gifted, you say, but we never asked for your gifts. What did you do for us, Foley? You turned us into adults. Foley, give me back the life you took away.

Epilogue

Max: I see you've learnt everything from David. It's just... beautiful.
